Dear Mr. Monasterio:

I have the picture which you were so good to autograph for me. Many thanks.

Since your photograph was damaged, I have taken the liberty of obtaining another copy from the U. S.
Chamber of Commerce and have autographed it for you.
I hope that I can have the pleasure of seeing you again before very long.

With kindest personal regards.

The Hon. Allen W. Dulles, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Through my good friend Bob Hill, American Ambassador here, I have received your letter of June 2nd and the photograph taken at the luncheon in Washington on April 28th at the meeting of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. It is indeed a fine photograph and I am returning it to you duly autographed. Most unfortunately I cannot ask you to autograph mine because after I received it from Mr. [redacted] it was damaged here and it had to be destroyed. Perhaps later on I can obtain another copy and I shall then ask you to autograph it for me.

I was delighted at the opportunity of meeting you and listening to your splendid address in connection with the most important subject of Russian economic cold war. I hope that you are well and with warmest personal regards, believe me

Sincerely yours,

Juan O. Monasterio
Chairman
